Women's Day celebration- 08/03/2023

A panel Discussion was organised on the occasion of World women's Day.

WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION AT GANDHI SHIKSHAN BHAVAN

Date: 08- March 2023

"The strength of a woman is not measured by the impact that all her hardships in life have had on her, but the strength of a woman is measured by the extent of her refusal to allow those hardships to dictate her and who she becomes."

Indeed the above quote not only resonates the power of women but also portrays the zest to always move forward despite their losses. So, to celebrate the women's achievements all over the globe and to mark their existence a small initiative was taken by the students of Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan's Smt. Surajba College of Education on account of this International Women's Day.

A panel discussion was setup for the students and the panel members were invited in our college. Our respected Panel members consisted of women's from different specializations who have already climbed the top of the mountains in their respected fields yet they were here to share their stories and to inspire us As how difficult was it for them to break the shackles in this women oppressed society and how we might be able to understand the suffering of the women's through their stories.

First our respected Principal Madam and all the teachers invited the panellist , introduced each member and felicitated them as well as thanked them that despite being busy they made time for us. After the felicitation ceremony all the guests took their seats. The respected principal introduced our guests to the foundation of our college as well as the Gandhian philosophy that we follow and also how we are carrying forward the legacy, she also discussed our initiative towards the society by the medium of community work. Dr Francis Vaidya one of our teachers introduced us to the importance and history of why we celebrate women's day as well introduced us to the theme of this women's day that was #EmbraceEquity. Where she continued further with the statement which says - Equity is just not nice to have, it is must to have.

The wait was finally over the students were eagerly waiting to have a glimpse of the wisdom that the panel members possess. And so the discussion started with the questions to the panel members. The initiative to ask questions on behalf of the entire college was taken up by Dr. Francis Vaidya -

Where she started with 1st panel member named - Dr Cecelia Chettair - Assistant professor asking her to elaborate difference between Equity and Equality and how in their institution they promotes equity?

- Equity is Raasta, Equality is Manzil. Perhaps a great way to start the discussion. She continued to explain us further by giving us the example of movie "Thappad" where she inferred the message through the storyline of the movie. Also she introduced the audience to the various welfare schemes for the girls that are been practiced in their institutions to promote the message of equity - such as Project Raaha - Where they identify physically deficient girls and gave them nutritional breakfast in the college

- Project Sanhari - Where they provide ICT training for girls
- Project Raaha - Basically A transgender support group.

Also at last she gave us a very important message about mental health and how it plays a major role in tackling the challenges and how important role a teacher plays in the, school and college as counsellor to tackle this challenges.

2. The second guest was Dr. Gauri Galkwad who can be also be referred to as M/s Versatile, as she is a doctor, an adventurer, a professional dancer.

The question asked to her was - As a women doctor what challenges do women face regards to equity and as a doctor what is her experience and medical facilities provided to women?

- She shared with the story of world's 1st female Dr.Elizabeth Blackwell and how in those days she was criticized for choosing surgery just because she is a women. And she contextualized the same issues that she faced while choosing this career where even after 200 years she is facing the same problems which consisted of unsupportive relatives, biased professors. Even during her clinical practice she faced many different problems in hospital where patients didn't approach her just because she is a women.

But she fought back and rose from the ashes of criticisms and proved to the world that Yes, I will not tolerate this inequality and I will fight and make a name for myself. She requested that the women's should not be totally dependent on their partner but should be self-dependent and be more vocal with their issues. She concluded with the message that Self-priority is more important than others.

3. "No matter how hard or impossible it is never lose sight of your goal"

Next time when you hear the word "dream" We are pretty sure that the face of Lt. Vinita Hublikar will probably come to your mind.

The question asked to her was -What emotions did you experience when you got title of Lieutenant as a women and plans for the society?

- She was very proud when she was awarded the title as her childhood dream was to be a military officer as this field is mostly dominated by male counterparts. She said that even though it was difficult for her and the road to the title was filled with pebbles, she collected them and built a path to glory. She also urged today's girls to follow the same path to greatness. Her plans for the society was a desire to see more representation of women in N.C.C.

"Tujha asthithva kay" - A simple yet powerful message for women's to create their own identity. And she concluded with the message of Chase your dreams, No matter what.

4. "There is no greater agony than bearing an untold story inside you."

A dreamer, a believer, an achiever, but most importantly "A Mother". Just think about a mother who doesn't get time to spend with his newborn, her family, just because of her honesty towards her duty. We had our 4th panellist Sandhya Khaire - Police Sub Inspector who is a crime branch officer.

She was asked about - Problems faced by her in this crime branch sector and facilities provided to her?

- She discussed at length about how she faced difficulties during this job at initial stage when she had to visit crime scenes which made her puke sometimes but she never gave up and continued to move forward despite the difficulties. She also discussed that when she joined -low salary, no family time and continuous duty were the problems faced by her. She also discussed about the need for family support while choosing the career of your choice. And concluded with the message that - She wants to serve the society till the end as well as motivate girls in education field and uplift them.

5. The last guest Smt. Jayshree Ratan Mam who works for the breast cancer patients through her SAISHA India foundation. They work for awareness of breast cancer and they have made knitted and crocheted cushions that look like a breast which a women who has lost one of her breast can make a use of it. They are made up of cotton and are recyclable.

So, with the last question the panel discussion ended and now students were given chance to ask question to the panel and clear their doubts. The Vote of thanks was delivered by the students of FY B.Ed and SY B.Ed. And the event concluded with the appreciation to all the panel members and with the national anthem.

All of us do not have equal talent, but all of us should have an equal opportunity to develop our talent"

So Post-Panel discussion the college assembled together on the account of International Women's Day celebration to bring the above quote to practice and organised a 'TALENT FAIR'

Talent fair was organized by the women development cell themed #EmbraceEquity where students were given a chance to present their entrepreneurial skills as well as to showcase their talent. The college ground was decorated for the purpose and students were given separate stalls to showcase their talents. After the ribbon cutting ceremony initiated by our respected principal mam Students started to assemble their goods on the stalls. Students made their own stalls by using different creativity methods. Stalls consisted plethora of items showcased from pin to piano.

"You are not quite dressed until a pair of earrings add sparkle". One of our students was here to add sparkle to your beauty by selling handmade clay ear-rings which were so unique and were of different shapes, sizes and even customizable. To relish yourself on a hot humid day we had authentic Punjabi Lassi combined with Chole & Pav. Mouth-watering isn't it. We had our students selling key chains as well as self-made portraits. Mehendi one our country oldest traditions was also included in the talent fair. We had delicacies from - Sev puri to Chinese bhel. Every meal is incomplete without a dessert. To fulfil this part we had our students selling home-made Cakes and Gulab jamuns.

All the guests and students attended the fair and they were quite enjoying themselves. The stalls were properly organized and after eating all the waste management was also done properly. All the young talent presenter-cum-entrepreneurs had their own experiences after the event when the survey was taken the outcome was that sweets and food was mostly preferred over the other items. All had their own share of profits meanwhile some had their losses. But every student had enjoyed so much and had such a great learning experience.

Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav -- Rakshabandhan and Kavita vachan din celebration – 11/09/2022

Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan's Raksha bandhan celebration with Indian army.

On 11 August 2022, 5 students from 'Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan' got the opportunity to visit Military camp of Kalina University, Santacruz with the help of Prof. Miss Yogita Mandole and the principal of Gandhi Shikshan, Mrs Sunanya Kadle who initiated by taking permits from Captain Shinde and Captain Naik.

The students gathered at Patukala College in Santacruz at 8.30 am and were taken to the military camp by 9.45 am. After a thorough checking of 20 mins the students along with Prof. Yogita Mandole entered the area. The area was in the cradle of nature which allowed the students' to experience a soothing environment which was unexpected in Mumbai.

The students at first were taken to a unique temple where deities of all religious gods including Ganpati, Krishna, Ram, Alah, Waheguru etc. were present. The students were made to sit in the temple along with the Indian army. A very soothing speech was delivered by temple poojaris in order to make their minds calm, clean and importance and unknown facts about raksha bandhan were delivered by the two. The talk was followed with Onkar meditation which bestowed in the students a pleasant and positive attitude.

After the session Indian army stood in a queue and then rakhi was tied to each by the students. There were soldiers who had no sister and who saw their sister in the students and the teacher. Miss Yogita Mandole got her brotherly attachment with a soldier and that soldier too got attached to her, which depicted how small is the world and what we finally need is love, care and people.

There were also soldiers who cannot celebrate Raksha Bandhan with their families as they are away, so they went to their quarter, got the rakhi which was posted to them by their beloved sisters and asked the students to tie it to them.

This made all the students emotional and aroused in them a feeling of love, compassion and lot of respect for Indian army and their sacrifice.

There was also a young soldier who was a three star and he narrated his story where he mentioned that his brother is in navy, he is in army and his father was in air force. This fact arouse a feeling of pride that how a whole family which is Indian by blood is ready to shed blood for the safety and security of our mother nation.

After the rakhi ceremony the students delivered speeches to thank Indian Army for their love and sacrifice for the country and portrayed respect for them. After the thanks giving the Army brothers gave chocolates to their sisters and also had breakfast with them. The students were overwhelmed by their hospitality.

The students were very emotional yet satisfied and experienced true happiness of raksha bandhan where they tied rakhi to the brothers who protect us daily , every time, every hour, min, second and day.

The students and Prof. Yogita Mandole left the place by 11am with a heavy yet satisfied heart and made their way back to college for Kavya wachan at Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan.

Report: Vacha training session

Antara Parashar
Roll no: 30

From the 23rd to the 25th of August, 2022, F.Y.B Ed students of Gandhi Skhikshan Bhavan attended a residential training conducted by Vacha- in the Yuva center at Kharghar. During this period, a variety of topics were introduced regarding gender and the structures prevalent within our society.

On the 24th, post lunch we had a session on "Intersectionality and Power walk" conducted by Mr. Pravin Thote. After an ice breaker, the session began with a demo, followed by an activity called the Columbian Hypnosis. It required the participants to work in pairs to lead one another through a space as one participant followed another participant's hand. The partner with the power would move their hands and the other partner's face had to follow keeping 1 feet distance. After one round of this, the power to guide the other was exchanged. In the third round, both partners would guide the other and also follow the other's hand. After this, we discussed our experiences during the activity. It was seen how when one was in power, there was a mix of feelings where they believed they could get the other to do anything. Some had fun guiding their partners however they wanted, others were concerned for their follower's safety. In the second round, when the follower became the one who had the power to guide, again the experiences were mixed. While some wanted to give their partners a taste of their own medicine, the others were more empathetic to the plight of the followers. The third round was the most complicated one to execute and participants through more practice intuitively figured out the balance between dominating and following. Mr. Pravin then went on to elaborate more on the concept of power; the different ways that one can get more power in this society, like education, money, caste, color, language etc. We also discussed the different types of exerting this power, whether it is with a weapon like a stick or a gun, or through monitoring via cameras.

This discussion was followed by our next activity: Power Walk. Participants were made to stand in a straight line facing forwards. They were each given a role. Situations were put forth such as "Can you get a loan worth 10 lakhs?" or "Can you go outside to meet your friends whenever you want?". If the participant's roles could do these things, then they would take a step forward, If not, then they would take a step backwards. If they were unsure, they would stay in their places. All participants started at the same starting point, but by the end when all questions were asked, everyone's positions had drastically changed. Some were way ahead, some were very far back, and some remained in the middle. When the activity was broken down, it was seen that roles that were given were complex and ranged from "19 year old dalit women who cannot see" to "A 45 year old man with 10 acres of land belonging to an upper caste". Each role given had certain aspects in their description that gave them power such as being educated, belonging to the upper caste or being a man. Each of the roles also had something that reduced their power such as being a dalit, being a women or having a disability. Mr. Pravin further explained how each individual belongs to a multitude of groups (or sections) in society and each of these sections interplay with each other and guide how far we go in life. Through the power walk the participants literally wore the shoes of another person and faced a myriad of situations with all its advantages and discriminations and hence understood the concept of intersectionality.

At 6:30 in the evening, after a short tea break, there was a screening for the movie "Gaon Nahin Kinni Paanch Ka". The story is set in a village setting, where due to government policies, a female needs to hold the position of Sarpanch. Unfortunately the elected sarpanch only holds nominal power here and the real power is held by her elder brother. The elder brother and four other members of the panchayat misuse their powers to benefit themselves at the cost of the village's welfare. When the village faces the consequences of the poor management by the panchayat Kaanta bai, a female dalit representative in the panchayat encourages Sharda, to take her true power as sarpanch in deed and not in name only. Inspired by this, the sarpanch starts working for the prosperity of her village and overcomes various obstacles. The screening was followed by discussion where participants reflected on the movie by bringing back the learnings learned earlier in the day on patriarchy and intersectionality.

The day ended with an assignment on poster making. Four groups would showcase ads on two topics, i) An advertisement for marriage, ii) An advertisement of a product (options were: detergent, car, property and deodorant)

The following day- post breakfast- began with a song and a recap of previous days' learnings. The first session of the day was "Gender in Text". The posters made the previous evening were displayed and groups turn by turn explained their thought process for everyone. The session's in-charge, Ms. Steffi gave her feedback for them. After that, participants were divided into new groups and were given texts which had to be analyzed with the lens of gender, patriarchy and intersectionality. Groups came forward turn by turn where they summarized the story and highlighted the issues within the text. The session concluded with Ms. Steffi emphasizing on the power of language- where language is one of the many tools that we use to discriminate between social groups; and that we must be sensitive to the words we use in our daily life.

The last session was taken by Mrs. Nishchint who conducted a quiz on "Women in all walks of life". The quiz covered women in politics, social work, literature, movies etc.

The three day training concluded with a feedback form and distribution of certificates. In those three days every participant had an eye opening experience in a comprehensive list of topics. It changed the perspective and created awareness about many things. Everyone left the training feeling more conscious and critically aware of their own society. It will hopefully impact the way one interacts with members of all social groups, the generalizations one makes about others and help one be a more mindful teacher in the future.

Gandhi Punyatithi- 31/01/2022

31st January, 2022

Gandhi Punyatithi programme was organized online by Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan's Smt. Surajba College of Education on 31st January, 2022 at 11:00 am IST, via Zoom meet. The event was attended by all the enthusiastic students and faculty members. The programme started with sarva dharma prayer, which created a joyous and peaceful atmosphere.

At the start of the programme, Asha Damle ma'am gave an introduction of the institute. She mentioned about the G.S.B School and College also about the Gandhian Philosophy followed in the institution. She also mentioned learning by doing. Our Principal ma'am Dr. Judy Grace Andrew also said some words about the institution. Sabiha ma'am introduced the guest of the seminar Sir Mahavir Acharya who is following the philosophy of Gandhiji. And also talked about Hunrashala foundation.

Sir has given a life lesson for all of us. He shared his village experience of remote regions. He has done great work in his entire life which was felt from his shared experience. He relates his work with the philosophy of Gandhiji. He shared one of his experiences of 2001 where his group faced a financial crisis for the construction process. But they were not afraid and made Ashram in 5km places with soil and with help of village peoples. We all observed the work done by them with ppt. His team used waste material like wood which will protect them from snow and cold.

He visited different states like Uttarakhand, Nepal. In Nepal His team had constructed 2000km above heights village settlements. Where all 150 nuns also gave their contribution to bring the soil from the down to hilly part. Village people were using their own creativity for the construction work. It means that village people also have their creativity but they are not getting a chance to explore it.

Sir also encouraged the students to come and visit his NGO. From attending this seminar, we all learnt that we should conserve our environment by using whatever was available in nature. After that there was a question - answer session with the students. The discussion was fruitful and inspired us to conserve our nature and we can protect ourselves with what we have. At the end of the programme, our teacher Dr. Sunayana Kadle gave a vote of thank, she thanked all the coordinators and all the students. The programme ended with the national anthem.

Yoga is an ancient form of exercise which is said to have originated in India thousand years ago. It involves breathing techniques, meditation along with exercises which are very beneficial for health.

28th February, 2022

Monday

International Mother Language Day is being celebrated as Matrabhasha Diwas on February 28th. There was a programme organized by Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan's Smt. Surajba College to promote and preserve our matrabhasha. It was a wonderful opportunity for everyone to express their feelings, love and gratitude towards their mother tongue. Students sang songs in their mother tongue such as Bengali, Hindi, Urdu, Konkani, Malayalam, Awadi, Kannada, Gujarati language. It was a thrilling experience to hear so many different languages under one roof.

On 28th February 2022, the celebration began with encouraging words for our principal ma'am Dr. (Smt.) Judy Grace Andrews. The event was well attended by all the enthusiastic students and faculty members in their traditional attire. The programme was hosted by the S.Y.B. Ed student Miss Poornima. The celebration started with a graceful dance performance on an awadi song by Deepa and Nidhi which created a joyous and energetic atmosphere. Then we went for the skit which was performed in Hindi, A comedy rhyme in Kannada language was recited Bhagyashri, then a group of S.Y.B. Ed students beautifully expressed how we should care for our oldies in our house. Afterwards there were songs melodiously sung by Poornima and Naheda in Malayalam and Tamil. The performances were so amazing as each song or skit had a hidden message for the audience. Darshana Makwana and Heli Saiya then narrated a story in Gujarati language. As Marathi language brings energy in everyone as it's a symbol of courage, our powada group members came to present a powada on Savitribai Phule. It was a power pact performance.

Developing a respect for language which is not spoken much now and reminding its history is a very important thing. Urdu is one of the most beautiful tehzibi languages. Urdu shares its origins with Hindi, sometimes referred to as a 'sister' language of Urdu, with the mixture of Sanskrit, Persian and Arabic influences. Then we heard a beautiful hamd by Needa which is an astonishing word to praise the lord. That really helped us to connect to the almighty at that moment. And there was a skit performance done by my Urdu group. There was also a kokani story narrated by Ria and Felsy. Which amazingly described the carnival festival of Goa, really a language can also be understood by gesture.

Moving ahead with the programme, Our Principal, Dr Judy Grace Andrews thanked the teacher coordinators and appreciated the efforts of the students through her motivating speech. The vote of thanks was proposed by Heli Saiya, after which everyone rose for the National Anthem marking the end of the matrubhasha divas.

THANK YOU!

The speaker welcomed the students and shed light on the goals and vision of the college which looks for teachers who will bring change in the society. The institution runs under the trust of Indian Council of Basic Education (ICBE). Established in the year 1969, by Vajubhai Patel the speaker mentioned the challenges and hard work in laying the foundation of the esteemed institution. She concisely told the students how Vajubhai Patel wanted teachers to be, who play a pivotal role of serving the society. He believed that education should ensure dignity of labour, we should be humble and not demean others for their labour. The speaker also shared various anecdotes of her journey in teaching. She said that “teachers are not factory built products”, a teacher has to be different. With that she also explained some of the important principles which a teacher must imbibe such as punctuality, respecting students, patience, and good presentation as well language, being polite with students and also avoid verbal ahimsa. It is very important how you conduct yourself as a teacher.

Being a teacher talk to them, give them a chance to ask questions, counsel them. Do not hold grudges against the students. Another point she highlighted was that develop the hunger for knowledge, teacher should engage students in different activities and should not limit to the use of textbook. Further she said that teachers should be keen observers and they should have a solid foundation for values. And lastly they should boost the morale of the students and work towards making them good human beings. At the end few students asked questions to her, which she happily answered. The webinar served as utmost importance as we students are now a part of this prestigious institution.

The session came to conclusion with our Principal, Dr Judy Grace Andrews expressed gratitude to the speaker, Nupur Mitra for taking out her valuable time and being a part of this webinar and our teacher co-ordinator, Ms.Sabiha More through her motivating speech.

Report on Gandhi Jayanti Celebration

02nd October 2021

Saturday

Gandhi Jayanti was celebrated with an insightful session and great excitement by Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan's Smt. Surajba College of Education. 2nd October is a red-letter day for our institute not only because we follow Gandhian philosophy but also because it is the inception day of our college. The programme was organised online by Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan's Smt. Surajba College of Education on 2nd October 2021 at 11:30 am IST, via Zoom meet. The speaker for the day was Ms. Pragati Chaswal, founder of SowGood Farm. The coordinators of the webinar were Prof. Sabiha More and Prof. Priti Chandorkar. The webinar was hosted by Prof. Sabiha More who with her enchanting words made the programme all the more inspiring and compelling.

As a ritual of our institute, the webinar began by remembering the Almighty by singing the Sarvadharmas followed by the beautiful song "Vaishnav Jan to" sung by Bhagyashri Badigi, a student of our college. Following this was the Lamp lighting ceremony done by Ms. Pragati Chaswal. This was followed by a beautiful video representation of "Deepo Utsav" by Poornima Warriar, a student of our college. The video beautifully depicted how the people of Wardha and "Mahatma Gandhi International Hindi University" light diyas to pay tribute to the vision, values and principles of Gandhiji on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. A brief welcome address was given by our I/C Principal Judy Grace Andrews. Prof. Priti Chandorkar did the honours of introducing our guest speaker, Ms. Pragati Chaswal with her loving and inspiring words.

Ms. Pragati Chaswal is the founder of SowGood Farm, an organisation that not only grows delicious food but also believes that farm provides the perfect learning experience for people of all ages. She started her presentation by giving us a brief introduction of her organization and a video showing small children working on farms, growing food on their own. Through the video and her presentation we learned that learning takes place best in nature. We were amazed to see children of such a small age doing so well on the farm without any assistance. It was amazing to see how some children who had a hard time doing simple math in class could do high level calculation in the field. It was inspiring to see them work with such enthusiasm. This with no doubt follows the Gandhian philosophy of Nai Talim, learning by doing.

It was an interactive session where the students interacted with Ms. Pragati throughout the session. Ms. Pragati threw light on the fact that there are so many things that we use in daily life that are so harmful to the environment and how we can recycle and compost garbage which will decrease the increasing amount of garbage as well as protect nature. It made us realise how we neglect our mother nature when it gives us so much in return. Our negligence harms the environment which in turn affects everything in nature. It was indeed an amazing and eye opening session. Next was the question-answer session where Ms. Pragati answered all the questions asked to her. A formal vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Sunayana Kadle followed by the National Anthem which marked the end of the amazing webinar.
